

What to do to export your vehicle permanently

Exporting your vehicle to a Country outside the European Community.

- The owner must address to our desk, fill in the section M behind the CDP with his name and address details, put his signature at the bottom of the Cdp in front of the public officer and show an identity document to the employee.
- In addition to the Cdp, he must give back to Pra the Carta di Circolazione and both vehicle number-plates (or, if you have lost any of them, bring the report of loss).
- The owner can receive the Export Certificate immediately at the desk.

Exporting your vehicle to a Country in the European Community..

- The owner must address to our desk, fill in the section M behind the CDP with his name and address details, put his signature at the bottom of the Cdp in front of the public officer and show an identity document to the employee.
- In addition to the Cdp, he must give back to Pra the Carta di Circolazione and both vehicle number-plates.
- The owner can receive the Export Certificate immediately at the desk, together with the original copy of the CARTA DI CIRCOLAZIONE, duly cancelled by our office, which will allow to carry out the registration of the vehicle in the foreign EU country.