

Replacing a lost or stolen registration certificate

You must replace your registration certificate (CDP) if it's been lost, stolen, damaged.
You can apply by addressing at the PRA provincial office where you need to:

1. you must report the loss of your CDP as soon as possible at a local police station.
2. At our desk you must fill in the application form, put your signature on it (notice: only the owner can apply for the duplicate) and enclose the report (original copy) issued by the police.
3. You will get a duplicate of your CDP in a few minutes directly at the desk.
